

Ohio Democrats Hear Cox and Baker To-day

Governor and Secretary of War to Address State Convention, the Former Taking Up Home Issues

Harding To Be the Target

Candidate to Await View of Cabinet Officer on the League of Nations

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 16.—When he speaks to-morrow to the Ohio Democratic State Convention Governor James M. Cox will devote himself largely to home affairs. He may also give a little history of the part played by Ohio in the nation's life in the last decade and the certainty of another Buckeye son sitting in the Presidential chair.

With his speech he will review his accomplishments in Ohio, dating from the period of the Fourth Constitutional Convention of 1912, which recast the fundamental law.

To some extent Governor Cox will be governed by what is said by Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, upon the League of Nations, in another address to the convention. If the Cabinet officer expresses the view that the Governor will probably confine himself to state issues.

Separate Peace Issue
It will be the Governor's mission during the coming weeks to elucidate the A. B. C. of the treaty and international situation. He found that at Wheeling and other points a thunderous roar arose when he said that Senator Harding on the peace treaty means a separate peace with Germany. The Governor has assured his advisers that this is a point upon which Senator Harding is badly trapped by his own acceptance of special statements.

The Governor this afternoon told the newspaper correspondents that it is "an Ohio year" and "it will, therefore, not be amiss if the last eight years of administration in the state are discussed modestly, as far as Mr. Harding is concerned" in the address to-morrow. During the day he received at his office in the Capitol a large number of visiting district leaders, among them a delegation from Wayne County, who induced him to stop on Saturday afternoon at Greenville, Ohio, for a short address to the local citizens.

The only conference he held was with Senator Robert L. Owen, of Oklahoma, advocate of the original Federal reserve system. Senator Owen gave the Governor a long and detailed report on the Federal reserve act and upon what is charged to be a secret move of its opponents to undermine it. This probably will be used in an early address, probably at Columbus.

The incident of the stopping of Governor Cox's automobile on the way from Wheeling, W. Va., to Columbus, Ohio, has been a source of little moment and is not deemed a matter of consequence. The Governor's friends referred to it as a matter between the four drivers of the automobiles. The Governor's friends referred to it as a matter between the four drivers of the automobiles. The Governor's friends referred to it as a matter between the four drivers of the automobiles.

Republicans Deny Plot

Denial of a Republican scheme in the State of Ohio, said Clark. "It occurred in a Democratic county and the attempted arrest was made by Democratic officials. My only comment is that it is a man who stands for law enforcement and who is to the local authorities does not set well."

NEWARK, Ohio, Aug. 16.—Joseph Whitaker, taxicab driver in Governor Cox's party en route from Cambridge to Columbus yesterday, who was arrested here on a speeding charge, refused to appear in court to-morrow as instructed. Officials would say whether Whitaker, whose home is in Cambridge, would be brought here to answer the charge. Whitaker had been released without bond.

Slayer, Awaiting Death, Makes Funeral Plans

Frank Kelly, a negro, awaiting death in Sing Sing prison for the murder of Catherine Dunn, of Brooklyn, is to supervise personally the plans for his own funeral.

George H. Harris, an undertaker, of 626 Herkimer Street, Brooklyn, received a letter from Kelly yesterday, in which the slayer asks Harris to visit the death house and to bring along a catalogue containing "the latest catalog" and other necessities for a funeral.

"I want no foreign undertaker looking after me," writes Kelly, meaning, presumably, the undertaker who usually looks after Sing Sing burials.

Harris will ask a Supreme Court Justice for an order permitting him to go to Sing Sing to bargain with Kelly for a funeral outfit.

Auto Death Rate Is High

One Killed Every 35 Minutes, Safety Council Estimates

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 16.—Deaths caused by automobiles in the United States are at the rate of one every thirty-five minutes, according to the executive committee of the National Safety Council, in convention here.

Statistics for 1920, S. J. Williams, of Chicago, secretary of the National Safety Council, said today show that in this country fatalities due to motor car accidents are three times greater than deaths by accident in all the factories, mines, railroads and other mechanical industries in the United States.

It is estimated that there will be 10,000,000 automobiles in the United States by the end of 1920.

Explosion Rocks Towns

500,000 Pounds of Gunpowder Ignited at Proving Ground

ABERDEEN, Md., Aug. 16.—Explosion of 500,000 pounds of gun powder on the government proving grounds today shook the country for miles around. The explosions were caused by a fire that destroyed five one-story buildings on the main front of the proving grounds. One hundred and fifty men ran for their lives when the flames reached the power storage plants in the main building. Firemen prevented flames reaching the adjoining buildings.

TIFFANY & Co.

FIFTH AVENUE & 37TH STREET
PARIS, 25 RUE DE LA PAIX LONDON, 221 REGENT STREET

PEARLS DIAMONDS JEWELRY SILVERWARE STATIONERY

House Dodges Suffrage Vote In Tennessee

(Continued from page one)

liberally speckled with visitors, mostly women.

Beside some doubtful members were women to urge a favorable vote. Mrs. Frank Stahlman, a vigorous suffragist, was on hand attempting to counteract the influence of her husband, who for the last few days has worked unceasingly to kill the amendment. There was a tenseness in the air. Members opened mail and received telegrams by the scores. Several anti-suffrage Democrats received lengthy wires from Governor Cox, which some of them read with derisive smiles. Every one was keyed up to fighting pitch. The monotonous drone of roll call after roll call on local bills formed but a background for the feeling under the surface.

Charges that the interests are "in the saddle" came from Senator John Houk, of Knoxville, Republican campaign committee chairman in Tennessee. He declared: "I believe one of the most powerful lobbies in the history of the Tennessee Legislature is now at work to defeat ratification of the amendment. I believe that if ratification is defeated the special interests of the state will be responsible."

A conference Sunday relative to an official investigation of the lobby proved no action at today's sessions. However, Houk reiterated his charges, saying: "I do not hesitate to say, however, that there is the biggest lobby operating here that there has been for twenty-five years."

Roosevelt Sends Telegram
There are sure to be preliminary roll calls on ratification. It was because of extra tangles which would come up if an attempt were made to force things today, the fear that some of the final suffrage votes would be against them on these preliminaries, which caused suffrage leaders to allow the vote to go over.

Mrs. Effie Tyler Upton, vice chairman of the Republican National Committee, was assured by a wire from Theodore Roosevelt to-day that "the final objective is as good as taken. It seems inevitable that Tennessee can do anything but vote with pride the opportunity to be the thirty-sixth state."

North Carolina Senate Sets Suffrage Hearing

Governor Cox Issues Denial of Report That His "Private Emissary" Fights the Bill

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 16.—The North Carolina Senate to-night set 11:30 o'clock to-morrow morning for a special hearing on the Federal woman suffrage amendment. The Senate also adopted a resolution to "divide both the floor and the galleries, the suffrage supporters to occupy one side and the opponents the other."

Many of the members chuckled as they voted for the resolution. The resolution was offered by Senator Warren, floor leader of the anti-suffragists. He gave no explanation.

Governor Cox replied to-day to queries sent by suffrage leaders denying a rumor that he had sent a "private emissary" here to work against suffrage. The message read:

"There is not a word of truth in the report that I have sent a private emissary to work against ratification in North Carolina."

The House to-day received a resolution from the Maryland Legislature memorializing it to defeat ratification. A resolution also was introduced in the House to reject the amendment, denouncing it as "incompatible with the oath of each legislator to uphold the constitution of his state," as "contrary to the wishes of the people of North Carolina" and violative of "the principle of democracy and majority rule."

Connecticut to Ratify If Tennessee Does

Special Session Would Have To Be Called to Enable Women to Exercise Federal Right

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 16.—Ratification of the Federal suffrage amendment by the Tennessee Legislature will mean that a special session of the Connecticut General Assembly will be called, with the certainty that the amendment will also be ratified in Connecticut, according to statements made here to-day.

It was said the Capitol to-day that the "special emergency" referred to in the State Constitution would be created in the event a victory for suffrage is registered in Tennessee and that the calling of a special session by Governor Holcomb would then be necessary.

Special Session Would Have To Be Called to Enable Women to Exercise Federal Right

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 16.—Ratification of the Federal suffrage amendment by the Tennessee Legislature will mean that a special session of the Connecticut General Assembly will be called, with the certainty that the amendment will also be ratified in Connecticut, according to statements made here to-day.

It was said the Capitol to-day that the "special emergency" referred to in the State Constitution would be created in the event a victory for suffrage is registered in Tennessee and that the calling of a special session by Governor Holcomb would then be necessary.

Auto Death Rate Is High

One Killed Every 35 Minutes, Safety Council Estimates

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 16.—Deaths caused by automobiles in the United States are at the rate of one every thirty-five minutes, according to the executive committee of the National Safety Council, in convention here.

Statistics for 1920, S. J. Williams, of Chicago, secretary of the National Safety Council, said today show that in this country fatalities due to motor car accidents are three times greater than deaths by accident in all the factories, mines, railroads and other mechanical industries in the United States.

It is estimated that there will be 10,000,000 automobiles in the United States by the end of 1920.

Explosion Rocks Towns

500,000 Pounds of Gunpowder Ignited at Proving Ground

ABERDEEN, Md., Aug. 16.—Explosion of 500,000 pounds of gun powder on the government proving grounds today shook the country for miles around. The explosions were caused by a fire that destroyed five one-story buildings on the main front of the proving grounds. One hundred and fifty men ran for their lives when the flames reached the power storage plants in the main building. Firemen prevented flames reaching the adjoining buildings.

Democrats Cut U. S. in 3 Parts For Campaign

Senator Pittman in Charge in West, Representative Doremus in Middle West and George White in East

Ready to Greet Cox Here

Luncheon at Commodore to Precede Gravesend Trip; Speech at Police Games

The Democratic National Committee divided the United States into three parts yesterday for campaign purposes. Campaign generals are to rule over each of these sections and assume the responsibility for the strategy of the Cox-Roosevelt campaign in their respective territories.

Senator Key Pittman, of Nevada, will direct the campaign in the states west of the Rocky Mountains. The boundaries of his district are the eastern limits of North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. Representative Frank Doremus, of Detroit, was assigned to the Middle West, the line running up to the western boundary of Ohio, including Michigan and extending south to include Kentucky and Tennessee. Everything east of this line is included in the third district and will be in command of George White, chairman of the national committee. Headquarters will be in San Francisco, Chicago and New York. The campaign was made at a conference between the three campaign generals at national headquarters here yesterday.

Arrangements were completed for the luncheon and reception to be tendered to Governor Cox on Saturday when he comes to New York to speak in the afternoon at the Police Games. Gravesend Governor Cox will arrive at the Grand Central Station at 10:07 a. m., New York time, and after going to the Hotel Commodore for a brief rest will proceed to the National Democratic Club, 617 Fifth Avenue, where a reception will be held. The luncheon will take place in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Commodore, and guests are expected to be seated at 1:15 o'clock. The reception will be held at the National Democratic Club, and should be accompanied by a check for $4.

Mr. Reihle, president of the Democratic Club, will preside at the luncheon. Governor Cox will speak.

It is planned to start for the police games at 1:15 o'clock. The guests at the luncheon will be expected to furnish their own transportation. Police Commissioner Enright will reserve 1,000 seats at the grounds for those who take part in the exercises. On leaving the hotel automobiles will form a line of parade, headed by a platoon of mounted police. All traffic on Fifth Avenue will be stopped. Mounted officers will take the column to Twenty-third Street, where the motorcycle police will take up the line of march and continue the escort to Gravesend. Police arrangements have been completed for handling the big crowd expected at the grounds. The amplifying equipment used at the notification ceremonies at Dayton has been installed at the grounds to be used during Governor Cox's speech.

The committee charge of the luncheon and reception consists of Mr. Reihle, William ("Big Bill") M. Edwards, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and Charles H. Knott, Deputy Police Commissioner John M. Shaw, George W. Sweeney, Daniel C. Roper, George White, Senator Pat Harrison, Representative Charles H. McNary, Erick A. Wallis, Commissioner of Immigration; Charles Thorley, Thomas Bissett, S. L. Golden, C. B. Alexander, W. L. Jacques and Thomas E. Rush.

A change in the itinerary of Franklin Roosevelt, Vice-President nominee, on his present Western trip, was announced. Mr. Roosevelt will speak in Los Angeles on August 24, which will cut out the speeches scheduled for Reno and Cheyenne.

Mayor George R. Lunn of Schenectady, who is actively campaigning for the United States Senate, despite the fact that the unofficial state convention failed to approve his candidacy, has volunteered his services as a campaign speaker and will be sent into Maine to deliver a radio address. Senator Harrison, in charge of the speakers' bureau, also announced yesterday that former Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, who is a candidate for Governor of that state, will devote two weeks to campaign speaking. Governor John M. Parker of Louisiana, Vice-Presidential candidate of the Bull Moose party, has offered his services as a speaker.

Immigration Agent Recalled
Dr. R. T. Rutherford, Canadian immigration agent at Ellis Island, has been recalled by his government to take a new position with the Canadian immigration station at Quebec. J. T. Sullivan, who is next in rank in the Ellis Island office, will have charge of the Dominion's immigration interests there until further notice.

Harvest in Eviction Papers

Dispossess warrants are providing a golden harvest for city marshals in Queens and Brooklyn, according to reports that have reached the municipal courts.

It is not uncommon for marshals to pile up fees amounting to from $100 to $500 a day, for dispossess warrants are numerous and the marshals receive $7 for every one that is executed.

In Brooklyn the judges report that as many as 1,000 dispossess warrants are issued a week, while the average for Queens runs close to 600. And there is no immediate prospect of an abatement.

The marshals, according to the judges, resort to eviction only when every other means has failed.

Payne Announces He Will Fight Wadsworth Tax Commissioner Prepares to Seek Senate Nomination in Republican Primary

George Henry Payne, Tax Commissioner, issued a statement last night in which he declared that he would file his petitions to-day for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, in opposition to Senator James W. Wadsworth Jr. Commissioner Payne said he had no intention of changing his mind in that respect.

"In pursuance of my original statement that unless some one more prominent than myself came forward to fight Senator Wadsworth," he said, "I shall file to-morrow my petitions for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate, in order that the voters of this state may have an opportunity to express their disapproval of his course and political actions. Unless success meets the efforts of his friends and representatives to throw out my petitions (I have been warned that such an attempt will be made), the Republican voters of this state will be called upon to suffer in silence a candidacy that endangers the national ticket."

"I shall make an active campaign, speaking in as many cities, villages and places as is physically possible. I shall ask the Republican leaders to give me an opportunity to speak at their regular meetings, for my fight is not against organization, but for organization. I have heart and blood in it, as opposed to selfish indifference to the interests and ambitions of the common man."

Roosevelt Says Porch Campaign Is Breaking Down

Attacks Penrose, Lodge and Root in First Address in North Dakota; Farmers Asked to Vote Democratic

FARGO, N. D., Aug. 16.—In his first address in North Dakota Franklin D. Roosevelt declared here to-day that the Democratic party, if victorious in the coming election, pledges itself to "seek a solution of the problems that will serve the best interests of the producer and the great consuming public."

"I am particularly glad to read that the 'porch' campaign of the Republicans is breaking down," Mr. Roosevelt said, "and that Senator Harding has now condescended to make five whole speeches away from home."

"The theory of the Democratic campaign is, of course, just the contrary. Our candidates are trying not merely to carry the campaign to the country, but to find out what the country is thinking."

"This difference in attitude of mind extends to the way in which the leaders of the two parties handle all public questions. The Democratic theory is that big national problems ought to be settled from a national point of view and ought not to be undertaken by a mere gathering in Washington of a half a dozen old-line leaders, who do not know the country and who represent the interests of a few states."

"The Democratic party is controlled by no such gang. If elected we pledge ourselves to seek a solution of the problems that will serve the best interests of the producers and the great consuming public, the two, after all, who are vitally concerned."

"There is no question that the farmer does not get to-day what he ought to get, and there is no question, also, that the consumer pays too much. Somewhere in between the two are problems which must be eliminated—our transportation problems, marketing problems and warehouse problems."

"Are you going to trust a leadership of reaction or are you going to trust the party of progress? I would not be a Democrat unless I was sure that progress in this year of 1920 is spelled Democracy."

In an address at Jamestown to-night Mr. Roosevelt said that if Governor Cox was elected in November the peace treaty would be ratified within sixty days.

U. S. Consul Given Gold Medal
MEXICO CITY, Aug. 16.—The Vera Cruz anti-bullying campaign committee has decided to award Paul H. Foster, United States Consul in Vera Cruz, a gold medal for his aid in the anti-bullying fight. It was stated in a dispatch to "El Universal" to-day.

Penrose Expects To Take Stump In the Campaign

Urged to Make a Number of Speeches on Taxation and High Cost of Living; Will Outline Plans To-day

Advocates Harding Tour

Pennsylvania Leaders Anxious to Have Nominees Appear at Several Places

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Senator Boies Penrose expects to take the stump in the Presidential campaign. This was learned to-day, when he made plans for a conference with Thomas W. Miller, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Republican National Committee for the Eastern division.

By reason of his intense interest in the success of Senator Harding and his comprehensive knowledge of taxation and the suffering caused by the present high cost of living, the senior Senator is being urged to make a number of brief addresses on this subject.

While the Senator gave no personal assurance that he would consider a swing around the circle, it is understood he is anxious, if his present improvement in health continues, to go before the people and reveal to what extent they are being burdened by over-taxation.

Mr. Miller is expected in Philadelphia to-morrow. In addition to emphasizing the importance of having Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge visit this city and other important centers throughout the state, Senator Penrose will discuss with his visitor the question of his own appearance upon the stump.

Wants Harding in Big Cities

Senator Penrose is gradually rounding back into old-time form and, with his complete restoration to health assured, is evincing signs of a lively interest in the campaign. Having expressed the opinion that it would be advisable for Senator Harding to forsake the front porch long enough to visit the big cities of the country, the Pennsylvania leader is now expected to furnish an object lesson by going upon the hustings himself.

Since recovery from his illness, Senator Penrose has been in touch with Republican leaders from every section of Pennsylvania. He knows the weak spots in the state and is taking every precaution to strengthen them and leave nothing to chance. Communications as well as personal appeals have come to his office requesting him to use his influence to have the Republican standard bearer, or at least his running mate, appear before the people.

A particularly insistent request was received from Warren, Pa., which will shortly stage a monster celebration. At least 30,000 persons are expected to use his influence to have the Republican standard bearer, or at least his running mate, appear before the people.

Senator Penrose has been informed by members of the national committee that Governor Coolidge will be so busily engaged with legislative matters and his gubernatorial duties that it will be impossible for him to leave the Bay State for some time. He has promised, however, that when the campaign warms up, he will consider the advisability of making a number of speeches at points to be designated by the committee.

Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, has an appointment to meet Senator Penrose Thursday afternoon. At this meeting the Senator is expected to make known his opposition to the front porch policies of Senator Harding and urge that the candidate get out before the people.

Coolidge Held Down by Duties
Senator Penrose has been informed by members of the national committee that Governor Coolidge will be so busily engaged with legislative matters and his gubernatorial duties that it will be impossible for him to leave the Bay State for some time. He has promised, however, that when the campaign warms up, he will consider the advisability of making a number of speeches at points to be designated by the committee.

Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, has an appointment to meet Senator Penrose Thursday afternoon. At this meeting the Senator is expected to make known his opposition to the front porch policies of Senator Harding and urge that the candidate get out before the people.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was acting alone and had no accomplices.

Crunk Bought Bonds
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Memoranda showing that Augusto Pasquale, "the crunk" held in the Montgomery County prison in connection with the kidnaping of Blakely Coughlin, purchased $7,000 worth of bonds shortly after his arrest, have been furnished to the federal grand jury by the U. S. attorney, who said that the bonds were purchased by Pasquale since the kidnaping, and they said to-day's discovery strengthens the theory that he was